#HOLOCAUSTREMEMBRANCE

by The Admin Team on March 26, 2018

Hannah Herrera, Karnie Liao and George Iyalomhe were recognized as Lexington's site finalists entries for Chapman University's Holocaust Art and Writing Contest. Out of more than 7000 entries George was selected as a finalist in the prose category and Karnie was selected as a finalist in the art category. This is a tremendous honor. We are so proud of our students who show outstanding empathy in passing on important lessons learned from survivors of The Holocaust.

Important Upcoming Dates:

- 4th quarter Sports begin after school 2:30PM-4:00PM.
- Students took Healthy Kids Survey in Science classes, 3/23.
- Speech and Debate Competition, Saturday March 31st.
- Open House, Wednesday April 4. Flyer with details attached to this email.
- Next Saturday Academy, April 7th.

THIS WEEK'S TOP STORIES

HEALTHY KIDS SURVEY INFORMATION

Every two years the Orange County Department of Education provides the California Healthy Kids Survey to all our district stakeholders. This survey provides us with pivotal data and information on how to best serve your students and families for optimal academic and social emotional success.

#1 Your students took this brief survey in their science classes this past week.

#2 I kindly ask that you as parents and guardians take the time to click on the link below and take the survey as well. I share data from this survey throughout the year to my staff and parents at Coffee Chats. Click and/or copy/paste the link below to take the survey! I thank you in advance for your support and cooperation!

TOLERANCE SUMMIT

On March 21st and 22nd, the Lexington students participated in the annual Tolerance Summit. The purpose of the Lexington Tolerance Summit is to create solution oriented citizens, to raise awareness about cultural identity, and to build empathy for our diverse community members. During the first day of the summit, classes watched student presentations including slam poetry, PSA's and Soapbox speeches. On the second day, the school enjoyed student created interactive exhibits celebrating the diversity of our campus. The MPR is now a gallery showcasing student artwork centered around the question-- "Who are the Scrooges of today?" A mini version of the Tolerance Summit will be on display at Open House.

SPEECH AND DEBATE COMPETITION

We will be holding our 3rd annual speech and debate competition March 31st. Yes, that is a Saturday! And if your student signs up to compete, they will get credit in making up an absence. See below for details and email Mrs. Heck for any questions. heck_t@auhsd.us. Thank you Cypress Kiwanis for sponsoring this event!
