#LEXINGTONIDOL2019

Another successful year of amazing and talented singing students!!! We can only have one winner--and it was Arwen Wells who sang Alicia Key's "If I can't have you." I was so delighted to see so many different styles of music represented at his year's event. Way to go to all our courageous and lovely students! And a kudos to our MC, Mr. Cornelius and judges Mr. Pfeiffer, Mr. Coombs, Ms. Stewart and Mrs. Houston!

The Lexington teachers have spoken—congratulations to our choir/guitar teacher CHERIE BATINGA! She is our 2018-2019 Teacher of the Year! Mrs. Batinga has been in AUHSD for 11 years and also served in other public school an additional 7 years. She has grown Lexington’s choral program from two periods to six periods during her time here! Cherie Batinga is a rock star....figuratively and literally. As Lexington’s choir and guitar teacher, she has lit the spark to allow her students to shine like stars! Not only does she fulfill the duties of her title, she eagerly climbs above expectations with her dedication and passion to the arts. Cherie donates after school rehearsals and practice to an elite group of students called, Velocity. This “show choiesque” group works tirelessly to perfect their competition routine medley where they compete all over southern California and have awards proving their “Lexcellence”. She is a creative genius with her vision of her shows---always different, always pushing to be better each performance. I admire Cherie’s connectedness to relevancy of what kids like, but also infusing classics. She often writes her own music, accompaniments, and is always unique in a world of conformity. The themes of her shows are very intentional and her song selections either promote social justice and evoke the heart of human connection. It is truly more than the stand and sing shows of yesteryears.

ORANGE COUNTY

Orange County Peer Court

February 19, 2019

Peer Court involves an innovative process through which teenage students – ages 11 to 17 – recommend sanctions for first-time juvenile offenders. About 240 minors appear before Peer Court juries each year. Members of the jury pool earn three hours of community service.

Operating under the authority of the County of Orange Probation Department, Orange County judges preside over the sessions and select student juries from the audience. The jurors ask questions of the juvenile offender and parent(s), deliberate with the assistance of an attorney advisor and recommend sanctions to the Court to help get the minor back on the right track. The Judge issues the final decision on sanctions with the Probation Department supervising completion of the court-ordered sentence.

When: Tuesday, February 19, 2019 2:30 - 4:00 p.m.

Where: Lexington Junior High School MPR

How: Just show up and plan to stay the entire time. You may not leave early. Some history classes give extra credit. See your teacher for requirements.

Questions? Contact Susan Larsen 714-220-4201 x 44535 or larsen_s@auhsd.us.

Here is a great opportunity for your student to learn more about government and be part of it! For more information see Ms.Larsen!
