I trust that our students and parents had a nice quiet spring break. I know that many of our families had canceled trips, postponed family gatherings and maybe even had a drive by birthday like I have seen on Facebook---but there is still so much to be thankful for in this world! Maybe you have seen how our environment is healing itself with less people and congestion outside---it is wild! It actually is reassuring to me that this great earth can heal! As frustrating and boring as it may become at times, we are still lucky to be in our wonderful community, with a solid Lexington tribe and hope on the horizon.

Our AUHSD family is serving two meals a day at specific locations in our district. In addition, we will start our “Chromebook Tech” distribution on Tuesday for Lexington students. I have sent several emails about completing or updating the tech survey---your response has been recorded to district office personnel. Only families that indicated they needed TECH got a follow up email from me around 4 pm with instructions and distribution dates/times. If you still need technology, please email me directly.

Continue to monitor social media for very cool projects and lessons that AUHSD teachers are doing for our kids. But most importantly, be present for your families. Lexington teachers are striving to provide meaningful, yet adaptable lessons and projects for your very new digital learners on our internet platforms. We will continue “school” on this distant learning platform. Be patient and kind as we together will navigate this journey. If you have questions-email your teachers!

I miss you all very much and I am sending only good healthy vibes from my family to yours.

anaheimunion #AUHSDCapstone: COVID-19

Dear AUHSD Family/Community,

In the upcoming weeks we will be posting some of the remarkable work our students and teachers across our District are creating focused on an #AUHSDCapstone project with the following Driving Question: How Is the Coronavirus Affecting Your Life?

Today, we want to share with you what Lexington's photo classes, led by teacher Elizabeth Hind, are working on. Students have created a photovoice project by photographing their lives during the COVID-19 confinement and writing statements about their thoughts and experiences. This is an important project, as photographers document history, and these students are generating primary sources that future generations will use to learn about our time.

Below are a few examples, however, the complete gallery is on view at <http://www.instagram.com/photographers.interrupted>.

anaheimunion Dear AUHSD Family/Community

In response to the rapidly evolving COVID-19 circumstances and the potential impact in our community, the Anaheim Union High School District has taken action to extend the dismissal of all AUHSD school sites through April 17, 2020. The District has taken this action in recognition of the guidance of public health officials, including the need to engage in social distancing, in an effort to slow or halt the progression of the disease. At this time, we are not aware of any positive test results in the AUHSD community, and we will continue to monitor the situation and provide updates on the status of dismissals. In an abundance of caution, we urge families to prepare for dismissals of a longer duration in the future.

OUR SCHOOL VISION

At Lexington Junior High School, we believe that to be successful educators we must create a high interest level in learning and maintain cross-curricular collaboration with enthusiasm for our subject areas. We are dedicated to maintaining high expectations for ourselves and for our students and to utilizing a variety of instructional strategies so all students are actively engaged in relevant learning and are successful in our classes. We set professional goals annually and frequently re-examine our effectiveness through peer collaboration and the sharing of best practices. Our collaborative and enthusiastic spirit maintains our focus on continuous improvement with the intent to help all students achieve academically and socially at Lexington.
