

Mrs. Houston's Monday Memo

Finish Strong Lions

"Gratitude turns what we have into enough." – Anonymous.

by Amber Houston on May 11, 2020

Lexington Families,

We are gearing up for the end of the school year---we definitely went out with a bang this 2020. Although it may have not turned out how we thought it would, we got through it together! I hope all our moms, grandmas and maternal special people in our lives had a wonderful Mother's Day this weekend where they felt appreciated and loved.

I am getting alot of questions regarding things like: When will I get to empty my locker, are we picking up yearbooks, what about my 8th grade promotion certificate, how do we turn in our books or technology? Priority for this is going to seniors at our high schools---but I promise we will have a date in July where we will get our lions back oncampus for these items. As more time passes, our officials are allowing more events to be done. We appreciate your patience and miss you very much!

Hang in there lions and don't forget we have class Monday and Tuesday live!

THIS WEEK'S TOP STORIES

COVID-19 Project

Ms. Hind and students have also continued to run Covid19 photos on their Instagram page called photographers.interrupted. Also below is an amazing ACE (Achieving Creative Excellence) reflection interviews done this week by a panel of educators and student creators!

This year's ACE nominees are:

Rishita Dugar and Naomi Lee; novel, Bond Between Us

Megan Na; visual art – painting

Devipriya Nishadevi Ajith and Sivapriya Nishadevi Ajith; original dance, Radha Krishna Dance

Tania Maheshwari; app and program development, beach clean-up

Michelle Yu; poetry and artwork anthology

Gabrielle Cole Mendoza; visual art – painting, Lady in the Wind

Ifeomachukwu Ibe; visual art – painting

Janya Jagan; civic engagement art and club, Art for Awareness

Chelsey Williamson; novel, Crayons and Chlorine

Grace Chan and Evelyn Tran; original music

Mrs. Campbell's art students have been focusing on some amazing quarantine food art this week during Covid-19 social distancing.

Ms. Larsen's History and English students are creating a COVID-19 Multigenre Project where they choose how they want their voice to be heard. Some students are using poetry, photography, theme collages, song paradise, and even writing letters to the Governor to make their voice heard and record how the coronavirus and social distancing has changed their life. Below are storyboard projects!

Ever since the covid 19 showed up nobody is able to go outside and play baseball or even any other sports

Everyday everybody has been just been coach potatoes and playing games all day because of covid 19

People that use to go to the gym and workout can no longer go so the covid has really effected everyone from working out

The schools are shut down which means we have to work online and its effecting everybody because it way different and everybody's lonely now

Once upon a time, a group of girls decided that they were positive they didn't have the Coronavirus, so they decided to go to Mexico for Spring Break.

To make it seem like they were really being safe and clean, they would constantly remind each other to wash their hands and to not touch their faces.

In the airport on the way to Mexico, the girls touched things and got germs because there were a lot of people there.

Once they finally arrived in their unit in Mexico, they were amazed by the rooms and were exploring the whole place.

At the pool, they met new people and hung out with them.

Turns out that they did have the virus and they were spreading it to a lot of people which made the Coronavirus rates go up. This is how they learned their lesson and they felt really guilty afterwards.

COVID-19 UPDATE: 4/1 (6:00PM)

ANAHEIM UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

AUHSD Dismissals Extended Through the Remainder of 2019-2020
School Year

anaheimunion In recent weeks, the State of California escalated its efforts to slow the spread of COVID-19, through the executive order issued by Governor Gavin Newsom calling for California residents to stay at home, with exceptions for attending to essential needs. In addition, a Major Disaster Declaration by President Trump also acknowledged the scope of this crisis and bolstered California's emergency response efforts.

Based on these conditions, directives and preventive measures, the Anaheim Union High School District has extended the dismissal of our schools through the remainder of the 2019-2020 school year, which ends on May 21, 2020.
