

Autism Focus Program- Lexington JHS

Mrs. Reyes, Room 902

reyes\_am@auhsd.us

Autism Focus Overview

This is an individualized program, founded on maintaining/ growing academic skills, language rich environment, structure/ routine, clear boundaries/ expectations, individualized pacing, balance 1:1/small group/whole group and utilizing preferred (reinforcement) with non-preferred (work), functional/practical/real-life/meaningful and an emphasis on appropriate socialization/ communication/behavior.

Curriculum

Reading- Small groups with the SRA Corrective Reading, online supplemental-Readtheory.org

English- Small groups with the SRA Language for All

Health- Positive Prevention Plus for Special Populations, Modified General Education Health

Math- Small groups with CMC Connecting Math Concepts, online supplemental-ixl.com

Daily Life Skills- Zones of Regulation, Model Me, Community Life Skills, Cooking, Social Group

Science- Modified Biology and Physical Science, Online Program- Generation Genius

Policy

★ Grading Factors:

- Participation
- Behavior/ Attitude
- Homework completed
- Classwork completed
- Effort
- IEP goal progress (A = Exceeding their goal, B = Meeting their goal, C = Working closely toward their goal, D = Working below their goal, F = Working significantly below their goal)
- IEP Modifications/Accommodations are followed

Expectations

- Be present: be on time, participate in class activities and discussions, work bell to bell
- Be respectful: of others, of property, and of yourself. Listen and speak courteously, ask to borrow supplies, don't distract others
- Be responsible: for your behavior, your materials, and your grades