

Exploring Entrepreneurship
Mr. Licata

Course Description: This 1 semester course will explore the principles of entrepreneurship, as well as personal finance. Covering topics such as; what it means to be an entrepreneur, owning a business, business planning, income and taxes, personal banking and investments, borrowing and credit, the stock market, and creating a budget.

Donations: There is a recommended donation of a $5 to cover paper, color laser jet toner, and general maintenance of lab. Any amount is appreciated.

Educational Material: Students are expected to have the following material in class everyday:

- Binder Reminder
- Pen & Pencil
- 3-ring notebook with divider for this class

Homework Policy: Students will do almost all work in class.

Grading will be based on the following criteria:

Students will be given a letter grades on completion of daily assignments, classwork, projects. The grading scale is as follows:

Grading will be based on the following criteria:

Categories: Projects, Classwork, Tests

Grading Scale: A =100-90% B = 89-80 C = 79-70 D = 69-60 F = 59 and below

Projects - The projects will be worth various point totals, depending on the amount of time needed to complete the project and skill required.

Daily Work - The students will be working daily on assignments. Participation and completion of their daily work will be given points.

Tests will be given at the end of each unit

Teacher/Parent Contact: I will make myself available for a conference any morning or afternoon. Please call (714) 220-4201 to make an appointment. Or, email me at licata_j@auhsd.us

I have read this Curriculum letter for Exploring Entrepreneurship and understand the course requirements.

Student Signature

Print Student Name

Parent Signature

Period _____

